

What Makes Chola Roots Special

- Our cardamom, pepper, and coffee gardens are small-scale, producing limited quantities with exceptional quality and rich aroma. We use only organic fertilizers, making our produce ideal for health-conscious customers and premium buyers.
- Our tea is sourced from a mini tea factory with limited production, preserving Kerala's traditional tea heritage while ensuring superior flavor and quality.
- No artificial colors or preservatives only naturally premium products with authentic taste and freshness.
- Cardamom is packed immediately after drying to lock in aroma and freshness. Our stock is always less than 6 months old, ensuring peak flavor, natural oils, and fragrance.
- Supporting Local Farmers Every purchase sustains farming communities and preserves Kerala's spice heritage.
- Retail, Wholesale & Export Ready Trusted quality for homes, businesses, and international buyers.
- Beyond Products, We Offer Trust Premium quality, transparency, and purity in every pack.

About Us

For centuries, the Chola ships navigated the high seas, sharing the world's most coveted spices. At Chola Roots, we honor that legacy. We don't just sell spices we bring you the authentic, unadulterated essence of the land that once seasoned the tables of royalty. Chola Roots is a premium spice brand engaged in retail sales, wholesale supply, and exports, delivering farm-fresh, natural, and unadulterated Indian spices directly sourced from the spice plantations of Idukki, Kerala.

Great cooking begins with healthy soil. At Chola Roots, we are deeply committed to protecting nature and nurturing the earth. We treat nature with the same care and responsibility we give to our children ensuring sustainability for generations to come.

To safeguard our environment, we use only organic fertilizers animal-based, mineral-based, and plant-based across our farms. This preserves soil health, enriches the land, and maintains ecological balance.

With every product, we deliver the taste of purity, grown in harmony with nature and trusted by customers across India and international markets.

Founder

Syamlal P Raveedran, the founder of Chola Roots, hails from Idukki, Kerala one of India's most iconic spice regions. Born into a farming family and raised amidst lush cardamom, pepper, and clove plantations, he developed a deep passion for authentic, farm fresh produce. Driven by a mission to empower local farmers and deliver chemical-free, unadulterated spices to both domestic and global markets, Syamlal established Chola Roots as a trusted brand bringing the richness of Kerala's hills to kitchens, retailers, and businesses across India and around the world. His vision reflects purity, transparency, and premium taste, ensuring every pack carries the heritage and authenticity of Kerala's spice culture.
